Varanormal ITC Session-Log

This form is used for structured logging of ITC sessions. It follows the Varanormal standard for documenting the recording technique used, the environmental conditions and results in order to enable a later evaluation and structured evaluation of the results (meta-analyses, publications).

1. Basic data

Identifier or session name for reference: Identifier

UTC date and time of session: yyyy-mm-dd hh:mm Location:

2. Optional data

Moon phase: waning crescent Temperature: Additional data:

Physical and mental condition of experimenter

Physical state: strong Mental state: Mental state: